Gordon, I think AB 30 is yours. Brett, I think AB 26 is yours.

Peter-
Behold, the ARC K12 package. Until they caucus, at least.

This seems likely to stick:

SAGE – 1. request an audit by LAB, and 2. allow grades two and three to be optional for participating districts

Separate legislation, so hopefully easy to draft:

Autism – 1. 2005 AB 700 language and 2. allocate $3million from special ed appropriation

Crossing guards – AB 26 Gottlieb

Felons – AB 30 Petrowski

And the rest, some of which is pretty thin on detail. I have no idea whether these will stick:

1. Allow choice schools to use WKCE or nationally normed test
2. Eliminate residency requirement for MPS (I think this is a provision of their collective bargaining agreement)
3. Allocate $190,000 annually to Second Chance (did this in 05 act 25) from alternative education grants and delete the 32 pupil participation limit
4. Revive Project Lead the Way appropriation, $250k annually (from 05 act 25 that sunsets June 30, 2007 and was just deleted as an obsolete approp under JFC)
5. Delete 180 days requirement for districts (retains hours of instruction)
6. Youth options – limit of 9 credits per student rather than 18
7. School safety – new categorical with $5 million ($2.5 annually) to supplement federal program (?) providing grants for school safety purposes
8. $500k ($250 annually) categorical aid for teacher merit pay. Have DPI promulgate rules.
9. Rename the school district consolidation grants from JFC to something like “efficiency incentive grants”
10. Pupil transportation – add alternative B 1 from paper 639; also increase aid rates to:

$20 0 to 2
44 Over 2 to 5
66 Over 5 to 8
132 Over 8 to 12
410 Over 12

2 of the statutes; relating to: liability for disobeying school crossing guards and

Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Under current law, a driver who disobeys an adult school crossing guard is liable for a forfeiture of not less than $20 nor more than $40 for the first offense and not less than $50 nor more than $100 for the second and subsequent offenses. This bill increases the penalty for failing to obey an adult school crossing guard to a forfeiture of not less than $30 nor more than $300.
